DISORDER
AMONG THE STRIKERS

East Pittsburgh Sheriff Forced to Call on the State For Assistance

PICKETS AT ALL PLANTS

Prevent Workmen from Entering, and the Deputy Sheriffs, Local Police and Special Officers Unable to Quiet People—Thousands Throng Streets.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Pittsburgh, June 29.—Disorder broke out among the striking Westinghouse employees in East Pittsburgh today, pickets surrounding all entrances to the electric works and preventing persons from entering. Office men, foremen and even superintendents were not permitted to cross the bridge, and the presence of twenty armed sheriffs failed to quiet the people and the local police reinforced by twenty special officers hastily sworn in by Burgess A. M. Snyder, could do nothing.

Striking employees of the Union Switch and Signal company returned to work this morning and this was the last day on which electric and machine work strikers were to consider themselves employees if they did not return to work according to the company's announcement.

Sheriff George W. Richards, at 8 o'clock this morning called on the state for assistance for handling the strike situation at the Westinghouse plants in the Turtle Creek Valley and in half an hour the Greensburg troop of the state constabulary was enroute.

Soon after day break it was apparent that the strikers and their friends were more disturbed than at any time since the strike broke three weeks ago. Thousands of persons thronged the streets of the little manufacturing town, but there was no open outbreak. At the biggest mass meeting the strikers have yet held, they decided yesterday that no one should be allowed to enter the works, and this morning office men, foremen and even superintendents were turned back by scores of pickets who were massed at all entrances. Deputy sheriffs were unable to control the situation and so reported to Sheriff Richards.

PEACE ENVOYS
HAVE PLANNED
FOR A RECESS

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, June 29.—Despite continued expressions of hope that the plans for mediation will not fail, considerable apprehension was shown today in official circles. Considerable significance was attached to the fact that the mediation conference plans to take a recess unless there is some definite assurance from Carranza by tomorrow that his agents will meet the Huerta delegates and representatives of the United States on plans for a provisional government outlined in the recent protocol.

Carranza's latest reply to the mediators asking for time to consult his generals who participated in the plans of Guadalupe before agreeing to enter the proposed peace conference, was said here not to have reached the mediators but that it probably would get to Niagara Falls tomorrow morning.

Luis Cabrera, one of Carranza's agents here, said today he believed the general would yield to the wishes of the United States and the invitation of the mediators after he had consulted with his chiefs.

Continued reports of the widening of the breach between Villa and Carranza, however, have served to disturb officials here. Alfredo Breceda, personal representative of Carranza here, after a conference today with Cabrera, sent a telegram to the chief, asking for definite word about the mediation conference as soon as possible, awaiting a reply. Fernando Iglesias Calderon, who came from Mexico as Carranza's friend with a view to serving as one of his agents at the conference said he would remain in Washington.

Carranza's request for more time to consult his military chiefs over the proposal for a conference with Huerta's delegates at Niagara Falls, served today as another cause for delay in efforts to restore order in Mexico through diplomacy. It was believed the mediators would be able to reply to the revolutionary leader's request within the next day or two. The mediators were informed by Carranza that acceptance of any suggestion for a new provisional government which would be discussed at the proposed conference, might require some change in the plan of Guadalupe, which was the revolutionary declaration of principles.

To do that, Carranza stated, would require the consent of his various military chiefs. He was said to have given assurances that the council of generals would be hastened so that a definite policy on the proposed meeting at Niagara could be reached.

DIFFICULTY IN KEEPING QUORUM
IN LOWER HOUSE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, June 29.—Confronted with the difficulty of maintaining a quorum in the House, Democratic Majority Leader Underwood planned to make a determined effort today to keep members on hand in order to expedite business. He has intimated that members who go home may be sent for or ordered arrested and brought back to the capital.

Among the legislative matters awaiting action are the annual appropriation bills, those must be expedited because of the closing of the fiscal year, June 30. Efforts are also to be made to secure the passage of other measures. Despite this the leaders are having a hard time in maintaining a quorum. A number of members have gone home expecting not to return during the present session. Representative Underwood has already warned members that he would insist on a quorum and was prepared today to use the sergeant-at-arms, if necessary, to bring members in so that business may be expedited.

BUBONIC PLAGUE HAS APPEARED AT NEW ORLEANS' LA.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Washington, June 29.—Surgeon General Blue of the public health service will go to New Orleans to take charge of the campaign against bubonic plague which has appeared there with one death and one case.

After receipt of telegrams today from Oscar Dowling, president of the Louisiana board of health, the treasury department ordered the surgeon general to take charge of the situation. Dowling reported bacteriological confirmation of two cases. The public health service, however, will make its own examination.

Surgeon General Blue said today that neither the city of New Orleans nor the territory surrounding was in any danger, but that it was advisable that the federal government take sharp measures.

IN FEAR OF UPRISING IN MEXICO CITY

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Vera Cruz, June 29.—The fear that the spread of dissatisfaction among the Mexican federal troops might result in an uprising in Mexico City, caused the British residents there to hold a meeting on Saturday night to arrange final plans for the defense of the concentration district.

British refugees who arrived here today and who had attended the meeting said the general opinion there was that Provisional President Huerta's hold on the situation in the capital was wavering and many predicted an uprising or a revolt of the federal army within a week or ten days.

Some of the refugees declared the federal defeat at Zacatecas to be partially due to the revolt of 5,000 federal soldiers under the command of Gen. Medina Barron. These men are said to have fired on their own comrades.

OCEAN LINER
GOES ASHORE
IN THE FOG

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Londonderry, June 29.—The 1016 passengers on board the Anchor liner California, which went ashore last night on Tory Island during a dense fog were successfully transferred to day to the Donaldson liner Cassandra and a small coasting steamer without the loss of life.

Several torpedo boat destroyers assisted in transferring the passengers. The California is in a precarious position on the rocky coast but it is expected she will be floated as soon as fine weather sets in. Her crew remains on board although the water has penetrated three of her holds.

Three hundred of the passengers of the California, whose destination was Ireland were landed this morning.

A wireless message to the Malinhead station early today stated that the vessel struck at 9:20 o'clock last night in a dense fog. In response to her distress calls the steamer Cassandra and three torpedo boat destroyers rushed to her aid.

The Cassandra and the destroyers, the message stated, experienced some difficulty in locating the California owing to the dense fog and treacherous nature of the coast. The destroyer Lynx was the first to arrive at the scene of the accident and by the aid of a searchlight from the Lynx the Cassandra was enabled to approach the California.

The message confirmed earlier reports that no loss of life had resulted from the accident, or in the transference of passengers to the Cassandra.

Fourteen flying machines have entered already and others are expected. The race is said to be the first of its kind to be staged in this country and the arranged route will afford opportunity for many thousands to see the small fleet of flying craft as it passes up and down over the Hudson river.

Other features of the celebration will be flag drills and folk dances at the public schools; patriotic exercises at which Champ Clark will be the chief speaker, and band concerts in the parks.

GEN. VILLA IS
OF AMMUNITION

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

El Paso, Texas, June 29.—Lack of ammunition has blocked General Villa's march toward Mexico City. Villa, fresh from his victory last week at Zacatecas, has returned to Torreon, bringing his entire army with him.

The relations of the northern zone commander with General Carranza, in the opinion of agents here today, unquestionably caused the abandonment of the campaign.

The much discussed Carranza-Villa estrangement has reached a breaking point, they asserted, in that the constitutionalist commander in chief has declined to allow Villa to import cartridges for his men and shells for his artillery through the port of Tampico. The port of Tampico now is the only entry way for munition which the revolutionists may use, as the border is still closed to them by the embargo of the United States.

Zacatecas Villa shot away practically all the cargo of the Antilla which landed at Tampico according to his reports here. Carranza men, however, declare that Villa did not get the Antilla ammunition which they say is still in Monterey. News of Villa's return north yesterday was regarded here as ominous by both factions.

Anarchist Shoots Nephew of Emperor Franz Josef, Who Was Heir to the Austro-Hungarian Throne, After
He Had Warded Off a BombCROWD RUSHED ASSASSIN
WHO WAS SAVED BY POLICE

Royal Party Was in Automobile on the Way to Attend Celebration When Bomb Was Thrown—Later Were on Way to Hospital to Inquire After the Injured
When Fatal Shots Were Fired—Death Masks Taken Today—Funeral Will Occur at Vienna.

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Sarayevvo, Bosnia, June 29.—Martial law was proclaimed today both in the city and the district of Sarayevvo in consequence of the assassination yesterday of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and the Duchess of Hohenberg.

Death masks of the archduke and the duchess were taken today and the bodies placed on a catafalque in the chapel of the palace and surrounded by a magnificent display of wreaths and other floral emblems from all parts of the country.

According to the semi-official report of the tragedy, when Havrio Prinzip, the young assassin fired the fatal shot, Field Marshal Oskar Potiorek, governor of Bosnia, was seated in the Archduke's motor car. Count Francis Von Harrach was standing on the footboard of the car acting as a shield to the occupants of whom he had constituted himself the special bodyguard after the bomb had been thrown a short time before by Nedoljo Gabrinovic.

The Archduke was joking with the Count about his precautions when the reports of several shots rang out. The aim of the assassin was so true that each of the bullets made a mortal wound.

For an instant after the attack Field Marshal Potiorek thought the Archduke and the Duchess seated opposite him had again escaped. Neither the Archduke nor the Duchess uttered a sound but a moment afterward it was seen they had been hit.

Lieut. Col. Erick Merizzi who had been wounded by the bomb in the first attack was today pronounced out of danger while the injury sustained by Count Von Boos Waldeck is said to be insignificant.

The Croatian students here today made several attempts to punish the Serbs, but the troops were called in and maintained order.

Gabrinovic, it was learned today, had been expelled from Sarayevvo two years ago but had been recently permitted to return through the intervention of the socialist member of the Bosnian Diet. Some Serbian students here when they heard the news of the assassination shouted: "Thank God we need not do it ourselves."

They were arrested as accomplices of the assassins.

Archduke Franz Ferdinand, nephew of Emperor Franz Josef, and heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his wife were assassinated at 11:15 o'clock Sunday morning when driving from a railroad station to the City Hall, where they were to attend a celebration.

The royal carriage had just started away from the station when a journeyman printer, Pierre Gabrinovic, hurled a bomb at the carriage, injuring six persons, all members of the royal family.

A young Serbian student named Prinzip, an accomplice of Gabrinovic, raised a revolver half an hour later and fired several shots at the archduke and archduchess, each of the bullets striking a vital spot.

The archduke was shot in the head and the duchess in the abdomen. They were carried into the palace, where they died within a few minutes.

Those of the throng nearest to the two assassins stood paralyzed for a moment after the explosion and shots, and then, before the smoke cleared away, flung themselves upon Gabrinovic and his accomplices, who were trying to make their escape under cover of the confusion.

The two men were thrown down and men and women tried to lynch them.

Those responsible for the assassination took care that it should prove effective, as there were two assailants, the first with a bomb, the second with a revolver. The bomb was thrown at the royal automobile as it was proceeding to the town hall, where a reception was to be held.

The archduke saw the deadly missile hurtling through the air and warded it off with his arm. It fell outside the car and exploded, slightly wounding two aides-de-camp in a second car and a half dozen spectators.

It was on the return of the procession that the assassination took place.

The first attempt against the archduke took place just outside the girls' high school. His car had restarted, after a brief pause for an inspection of the building, when Gabrinovic hurled the bomb. This was so successfully warded off by the archduke that it fell directly beneath the following car, the occupants of which, Count Von Boos-Waldeck and Colonel Merizzo, were struck by shrapnel.

Archduke Franz Ferdinand stopped his car, and after making inquiries as to their injuries and lending what aid he could, continued his journey to the town hall. There the burgomaster began the customary address, but the archduke sharply interrupted and snapped out:

"Herr Burgomaster, we have come here to pay you a visit and bombs have been thrown at us. This is an altogether amazing indignity."

After a pause, the archduke said: "Now you may speak."

On leaving the hall the archduke and his wife announced their intention to visit the wounded members of their suite at the hospital on their way back to the palace. They were actually bound on their mission of mercy, when, at the corner of Rudolf strasse and Franz Josef strasse, Prinzip opened fire.

A bullet struck the archduke in the face. The duchess was wounded in the abdomen and another bullet struck her in the throat, severing an artery. She fell unconscious across her husband's knee. At the same moment the archduke sank to the floor of the car.

The assassins were interrogated by the police and both seemed to glory in their exploit. Prinzip said he had studied for a time at Belgrade.

ASSASSINATION
WAS CAREFULLY
PLANNED CRIME

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

London, June 29.—Every dispatch today from Sarayevvo and Vienna brought additional evidence that the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand and the Duchess of Hohenberg was one of the most carefully planned crimes ever carried out against royal personages.

Indications from the scene of the tragedy show that it was engineered by persons possessing more mature organizing ability than that of the youthful assassin. It is generally thought in Austria and Hungary that the plotters had their headquarters in Belgrade, the Serbian capital.

Serbian hatred of Austrians which always has been violent, has been fomented by the newspapers in Belgrade and by agitators throughout Serbia and Austria who have helped to inflame the minds of the students and to induce them to sacrifice their lives in the belief that they will go down to history as patriots.

Yesterday's crime seems likely to have a contrary effect to that desired by its authors. Even before the bodies of the murdered couple have been interred the Austrian authorities are contemplating severe measures against the Serbs among the inhabitants of Austria and Bosnia. These measures are likely further to embitter the relations between the two countries as well as those between Austria and Russia, the protector of all the Serbs.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand, it is asserted today was well aware of the danger he was running during his

SOME KNOWN FACTS ABOUT RHEUMATISM

There are many things that are still unknown about rheumatism. The treatment of it is still far from satisfactory. Doctors realize this but nobody is more fully aware of it than the sufferers themselves.

A tendency to rheumatism once established, the pain often returns with every change of weather, showing that the poison is still in the blood awaiting favorable conditions to become active and cause trouble.

One fact is known and acknowledged by all medical writers and that is the rapid thinning of the blood when the rheumatic poison invades it. Building up the blood is the best remedy for rheumatism as the enriched blood is able to overcome or throw off the poisons of the disease. For this reason rheumatic sufferers should be interested in the success which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have had in the treatment of this painful disease.

A book, "Building Up the Blood," will be sent free on request by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Schenectady, N. Y. It contains directions regarding diet, baths and hygiene for rheumatic patients.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists everywhere.

Contest Editor's Query Column

The Advocate will be glad to answer all legitimate questions regarding the contest through the Contest Editor's query column. Questions may be sent by mail or telephone but the answers will be printed in this column so that no contestant will have any advantage over another.

A. E.—Thank you for your message. I hope you will have another contest. This one has been very fair.

Mrs. K. V. D., Columbus, writes: "I feel it is a duty I owe you to congratulate you on the fairness of your contest. . . . I consider the contest a fair one and we could not expect but to have some of the pictures hard to keep us guessing. I hope some time you will give us another chance. . . . Please continue the paper. I enjoy it so much for Licking county was my former home."

Mrs. R. C. N., Columbus, writes: "I have enjoyed the contest immensely. Why all this controversy over 'Lavender and Old Lace' I fear the critics of that picture lack imagination. I think the title fits the picture perfectly. To me the picture as a whole is redolent of the scent of lavender. It is a charming picture. But I can't see the Professor at the breakfast table. We get our ideas of professors over here from those we see at O. S. U. and they don't wear long hair. I don't know but I don't believe they tie their napkins around their necks. However, I have no wish to throw any bricks. I have had lots of fun out of the contest and hope you may give us another soon."

M. M. E.—Please don't get impatient. We are progressing as fast as possible. Pictures of many of the winners are in the hands of the engravers and in a few days the full list will be printed.

Contestant—The 136 prizes will be awarded in a few days.

E. G.—Please send your photograph right away.

Inquirer—Photographs of many of the prize winners will be published. We shall be glad to have yours if you will send the picture at once.

C. T. Columbus, writes: "I wish you and your valuable paper success. I have enjoyed the contest very much and think it has been conducted in a fair and impartial manner."

TO FIND OUT WHO RECEIVED "GRAFT" MONEY

(Associated Press Telegram.)

Chicago, June 29.—The city council today assumed a share in the inquiry into the conduct of the closed LaSalle Street Trust and Savings Bank which is under investigation by the state and national governments. The council has appointed a committee to find out to whom was paid the "split" from the interest on city funds carried by the suspended bank.

The bank paid three per cent. interest on city deposits. The city was paid 2-1/4 per cent. and some unidentified official is said to have received the remaining 3-1/4 per cent. Officers of the bank including C. B. Munday, its vice president, were summoned to appear before the council committee. City financial officials also were called. W. C. Niblack receiver of the suspended bank said that the person who received the "split" check would be made known at the council committee meeting.

State and federal grand juries will assemble in two weeks to hear evidence in the matter of the insolvency of the bank.

A counter pile with $375,000 in greenbacks, gold and silver today greeted the eyes of depositors of the North Avenue State bank from which $200,000 was withdrawn in a run Saturday. Big downtown institutions came to the rescue of the bank, declared it solvent and said it would be protected. Officers of the bank said their depositors were frightened by the troubles of the Lorimer-Munday string of banks. The North Avenue bank, they declared, had no connection with those enterprises.

Large Audiences Hear Two Noted Anti-saloon Leaders Here Sunday

Sam Small, who at one time gained considerable notoriety throughout the country by his original and forcible evangelistic speeches, and Wayne B. Wheeler, Superintendent of the Ohio Anti-Saloon League, were the star speakers sent to Newark Sunday by that organization to talk temperance in church pulpits. Though speakers of less prominence also spoke in most of the city churches, under the League's auspices.

Rev. Small addressed a fair-sized audience at the Second Presbyterian church in the morning, but at the First M. E. church in the evening the house was packed, and numbers were unable to get inside.

There was much curiosity among Newark people to see and hear Sam Small, who some years ago, when Sam Jones was in the sort of evangelism that appeals to the sensational and sentimental in audiences, from the directness and originality of the speaker's vocabulary, and his oratorical peculiarities. His style Sunday had lost little of the element, that in late years makes Billy Sunday famous, and those who went to hear him along those lines, were satisfied.

Superintendent Wheeler is better known to Newark audiences, and has a large following in this city which is heartily in sympathy with the objects and methods he represents, and this organization is attempting to forward.

State-wide and nation-wide prohibition was the general theme of both gentlemen's discourses, and they participated in the discussion of the proposed amendment and the announced intention of the liquor interests to seek an amendment to the Ohio Constitution which would prevent state-wide prohibition and knock out the county option law. The text of this proposed liquor amendment follows:

"No law shall hereafter be passed prohibiting the sale, furnishing or giving away of intoxicating liquors throughout the state; nor shall any law be passed or be in effect prohibiting the sale furnishing or giving away of intoxicating liquors operative in a subdivision of the state upon the option of the electors thereof, or upon any other contingency, which has force within a territory larger than a municipal corporation or a township outside of municipal corporations therein. All laws in contravention of the foregoing are hereby repealed.

In discussing his Mr. Wheeler said: "The brewers' proposal to amend the constitution so prohibition would be impossible in Ohio, is absurd. They proposed that in the constitutional convention, and even the fair-minded wets would not stand for the submission of such an amendment. "The second proposition to repeal county option under the name of 'home rule' will fool no one. Home rule and home rule do not go together. That is why the home rule clause in the constitution safeguards all state temperance laws and other laws which protect public morals.

"The liquor interests seem to be absolutely oblivious to public opinion on this question. Ohio is not going to be the one state in the Union to put a provision into her constitution preventing moral progress."

He further stated that on Monday morning, from the state headquarters of the Anti-Saloon League, a petition would go out for an amendment to the Ohio constitution providing for state-wide prohibition, and the fight was now to be upon a well-defined issue.

Mr. Wheeler also prophesied the passage of the Hobson resolution by congress, providing for the submission to the states of an amendment to the federal constitution, declaring for national prohibition. He went further and stated that there would be no doubt in his mind that this would be ratified within the next five years, by enough states to make the amendment a part of the country's organic law.

Rev. Small spoke in the same vein and was equally confident that the prohibition movement is receiving a great impetus of late and could see no other ultimate result than that of nation-wide prohibition, which he believed to be the best thing for the country that could happen since the emancipation of negro slaves.

Mr. Wheeler spoke in the morning at the First Presbyterian church and at night in the Pine Street Christian Union church.

C. A. C. Defeated.

In one of the most exciting games ever seen in Coshocton, the C. A. C. was defeated by the close score of 6 to 5. The C. A. C. has been up against some bad teams this season, but this is the worst ever. The crowd was so disgusted with his work that they rose to their feet and hooted him for fully five minutes. In the eighth inning, after calling a Newark player safe at home he changed it, to the disgust of everybody. The features of the game were the hitting of Nehls and Hornung and a wonderful catch by Doc Abbott, the old Newark favorite.

Lengthening Life.

The present generation of young people should live 15 years longer than their parents. The latter lived 15 years longer than did their ancestors of 100 years previous.

At least, this is what Dr. V. C. Vaughn, the new president of the American Medical Association, told that body the past week at their Atlantic City convention.

The death rate was reduced in a century in London, for instance, from 50 per thousand to 24. Twice as many children live to grow up now. It was formerly quite an achievement for a young person to acquire maturity. Smallpox used to kill one in ten of the population.

Still the ordinary observer of human life can hardly believe that the babies of today are going to gain any 15 years. Diseases like cancer, Bright's, heart troubles, are increasing. The science of modern life saves the infants, but the pace of human life kills the old folks.

It is a good deal like a paragraph seen in some paper the other day. A young man was reported as seeking a $5.00 per week increase of pay and getting it. He immediately telephoned his wife that she could close the deal for another house on an increased rental of $20 a month. Added income means added outgo.

If a man through better science or physical exercise acquires increased strength, he rarely uses it in building up a reserve of resistance against troubles to come. Ordinarily he uses it in speeding up his business pace, so that he can make more money.

What is needed for a greater longevity is not so much more science, as a better spirit of philosophy. It is just as important to live within our physical means, saving up a reservoir of energy against future drains, as to live within our financial means and acquire a bank balance.

July 4 Mischief.

The American people are not ordinarily much afraid of noise. City life, with its steam whistles and banging trolley cars, is much more popular than rural scenes with their pastoral quiet.

The protest against the old Fourth doings would never have attained headway on the basis of noise alone. It was rather the lawlessness, the defiant destruction of property, the heedless injury to human life and faculties.

Cannon crackers and dynamite caps were a skillful effort of ammunition companies to market their goods. These sold readily to young fellows who lacked brains enough to make themselves conspicuous in useful ways. The tolerant public could stand noise, but it not sensible to pay hospital bills indefinitely.

Millions of dollars of property are burned up annually in July 4 mischief. The hoodlum element would never go out in a vacant space and have a safe bonfire. Buildings must be endangered to make it interesting. The public is learning that it settles the bills when the insurance premiums come around.

Newark next Saturday is to have a safe and sane Fourth. The sale of explosives has been forbidden and the officers are to enforce the law.

What's become of the imaginary creature who, according to the standpatters, was distressed because the rural schools were to be demolished by the new law?

Harry L. Davis, of Cleveland, selected by Daniel R. Hanna as the new member of the Republican state central committee from that city, was an active member of an insurance convention which recently demanded that the workmen's compensation law should be opened up for competition on the part of Scottish and English liability companies against the state of Ohio.

The average death benefit in the thirty-eight death claims allowed up to Dec. 31, 1913, by the State Industrial Commission was $2,509.89. The average amount for funeral expenses was $136.30. Comparing the amounts of the death claims as allowed by the Industrial Commission with awards in the courts of Cuyahoga county, it is found that the former are almost three times as large as the latter.

"The higher the duplicate the lower the rate." Motto of the state administration in handling the taxation question.

The Salem Fire.

In a city of only 45,000 inhabitants, a fire loss of nearly $10,000,000 or more that leaves nearly a third of its population without shelter would be an irreparable disaster but for the thrift, the courage and the energy that make up so much of the Yankee tradition. Salem is surrounded by wealthy and well-governed cities that have proved their generosity on a hundred occasions. Her needs were promptly taken in hand, order has been well maintained, and no time will be lost in building more fire-resisting structures upon the ruins. — New York World.

Blame the Printer.

Through a stupid blunder in Friday's daily, one of the witticisms of Abe Martin, which we grant are clever when in their proper place, in some manner got mysteriously incorporated into the middle of the account of a prominent wedding. I guess words are ever justifiable in the life of an editor, such an annoying occurrence should amply excuse a full flow. — Delaware Gazette.

Convicted Dynamiters.

Two significant facts stand out in the recent news. One is that the convicted dynamiters, except those to whom commutations or new trials were granted, have begun the service of their terms of imprisonment. The other is that there is no outcry against the punishment, on the part of organized labor. The men had a fair trial and were found guilty. Their cases were carried to the highest court and were later reviewed by the president. Some new trials were granted. The president commuted the sentences of some whose personal guilt was least. The men have had every possible chance to show their innocence, but the evidence was against them. They violated the law against the transportation of dynamite, conspiring to use it in the destruction of property. One awful result was the Los Angeles Times explosion, in which more than a score of lives were destroyed. There can be no apology by honest men for such offenses. — Columbus Dispatch.

Uncle Walt

Mournful Musings.

A few short years of grief and mirth, and we go back to Mother Earth, our play and labor done, no more to struggle or to plan, no more to do our fellow man, or to hittle for the mon. An epitaph upon a stone will tell you where we sleep alone, and other things relate: "As I am now, so you must be, therefore prepare to follow me, and get your shroud on straight." Full soon, my friends, we shall repose oblivious to human woes, and all men's transient schemes; the clamor of the busy street, the thunder of countless feet, will not disturb our dreams. Out in the silent resting place, each sent, in his own packing case, shall wait the judgment dawn, and he's in luck if living men shall move the weeds down now and then, and mourn that he is gone. So why be straining all our days to get the best of other jays, and pile up stacks of pelf? Why scratch so bitterly and hard to get in long green by the yard, why let our god be Self? Oh, let us blow our surplus wealth for others' happiness and health, shell out our miser's heap, and when we die some day in June, the stores will close all afternoon to let employees weep.

HEALTH HINT FOR TODAY.

Keep Your Mouth Clean.

The mouth is the most neglected and ill kept organ of the human body. Some authorities assert that our neglected and misused mouths are responsible for more human ills and losses of working efficiency than any other one organ in the body. Care of the teeth cannot be taught too soon. Children in school should be taught the care and proper use of the "human grinding machine." This is particularly true where children are not taught a few simple, regular habits about cleaning and brushing the teeth at home. Toothbrush drills are a regular course in some of our larger city schools. They should be in every school.

Children's Sayings

What was it your child or your neighbor's or your friend's child said yesterday or last week that made you smile or think? Children are ever saying or doing original or quaint things. Let's have them. The Advocate will be glad to receive communications along this line. Every communication must be signed but if the name is not to be printed kindly so indicate it. If you prefer, use the telephone and ask for the Children's Sayings Editor.

A few weeks ago Prof. O. J. Barnes' little girl of five was given a catechism at Sunday school. When she returned to her home in Granville street, she ran in all out of breath and exclaimed: "Oh, papa, my Sunday school teacher gave me a 'Kitty Chasm' to learn."

Tom has whooping cough. He is only 5 but has a grown up taste for cantaloupes. The other day his parents took Tom to a town near Newark and allowed the lad to enjoy all the melon he wanted. Later it was discovered that he had gone far into the "green" and was cautioned to eat only the inner coating of the melon. Soon Tom was seized with a coughing spell and on returning to the room the little fellow smilingly said: "I had a hard cough mother but praise the Lord I lost only the green part."

A Sunday school teacher, after conducting a lesson on the story of "Jacob's Ladder," concluded by saying: "Now, is there any little girl or boy who would like to ask a question about the lesson?"

Little Susie looked puzzled for a moment, and then raised her hand. "A question Susie?" asked the teacher.

"I would like to know," said Susie, "if the angels have wings, why did they have to climb up the ladder?"

The teacher thought for some moments and then, looking about the class, asked:

"Is there any little boy who would like to answer Susie's question?" — Everybody's Magazine.

"If there were four flies on a table and I killed one, how many would be left?" inquired the teacher. "One," answered the bright little girl, "the dead one."

The Chicago Tribune quotes Mrs. R. E. Harmer as saying: My little boy Jack 3 years old, was thoroughly wrapped up in a little neighbor boy, John, 9 years old. John always had his hair nicely parted, while Jack's hair was "bobbed." One day, after seeing John, he came to me and said, "Mamma, I want a crack in my head like John has."

Three year old Geraldine was playing with a small pup, when a passing friend inquired: "How old is your puppy?" Geraldine solemnly shook her head as she replied, "He hasn't any old, he's dist a baby."

Margaret, age 6, came running in from school, exclaiming, "Mamma, a girl in my room divided me and Catherine to her birthday."

My 3-year-old boy and I were in the kitchen one afternoon. I was doing some heavy work, and my costume was not the cleanest. Mrs. Smith, my neighbor, was busy in her kitchen, and every time she would pass her open door my little boy would call her. He finally attracted her attention, then he turned to me and said, "Mamma, mamma, here is Mrs. Smith." I said, "Hush, John. I don't want to her to see me, for my dress is so soiled." He thought a minute, and said, "All right, mamma, I will tell her I am an orphan." — Chicago Tribune.

TO WOMEN WHO OVER DO.

Thousands of American women in our homes are daily sacrificing their lives to duty. In order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well dressed and tidy, women overdo. Soon a weakness or displacement is brought on and they suffer in silence, drifting along from bad to worse. For forty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved a boon and a blessing to women in this condition, by restoring their systems to a normal healthy condition. Why don't you try it?

Cloudburst Does Immense Damage at Benkoelen, Sumatra

(Associated Press Telegram) Batavia, Java, June 29.—Immense damage was caused by a terrible cloudburst last evening at Benkoelen, Sumatra, where the business section was destroyed and the hospital, the school and a number of houses collapsed. Related reports from the southern districts of Sumatra state that many Europeans were injured during the recent earthquake which also caused great destruction of property. The passenger steamer Vandooon of the Dutch Royal Mail Steamship Co. went ashore in Maassar Harbor in the island of Celebes, as a result of the heavy seas.

Don't stand on your dignity. There isn't anything much more slippery.

AMOLOX THE NEW DISCOVERY

Many Cures Reported Daily in Towns Where It Is Known.

The wonderful cures that are being made by this remarkable new remedy are almost beyond belief. A young lady from Ottumwa, Ia., for many years suffered from a bad case of eczema. Her face was a sight to behold; all covered with red blotches, pimples and pimples. So she sought relief in various ways, but all failed. Finally, she was cured by Amolox. After a few weeks' treatment with Amolox the scaly redness disappeared, pustules healed and she was entirely cured. A few months following her mother wrote that Amolox had done wonders for her daughter, and she was married last week. Seems like a fairy tale, doesn't it? Yet this is the truth. This is only one of the many cases that are being reported in towns where Amolox is invaluable for the eczema, psoriasis, acne, tetter, barber's itch, red nose or any skin affliction. Recommended and guaranteed by T. J. Evans Drug Store. Your money back if it fails to do what we claim for it.

THE SICK

Bazler & Bradley's ambulance on Sunday removed Frank Weasley from the City Hospital to his home in Roe avenue, and Delmar Walker from the Sanitarium to his home, 68 Gay street. Both are much improved in health.

Mrs. E. W. Warrington, Bolton avenue, is improving rapidly as could be hoped or expected after having undergone a surgical operation at the hospital. She is able to walk out on the porch.

Mrs. Charles Walker of Bolton avenue, who has been critically ill for some time, is improving nicely and anticipates that in the near future she will be able to get out again.

Mrs. Howard Andrews of Channel street, who had sustained a severe relapse, is now again hopeful of recovery.

Mrs. Esther Pickett, who has been cared for at the home of her sister in Norton avenue, for over six months, now seems on the road to recovery of health. She can talk a little and with a little assistance can walk a little.

Mrs. Clarence Bishop, Craig street, who was at the Sanitarium a few weeks ago, is slowly gaining strength and thinks of going to the home of her mother at Centerburg, in a few days, and remain there for some time.

Mrs. Pearl Penick, Channel street, who was in the Sanitarium several weeks ago for surgical treatment for tuberculosis, is now apparently as well and hearty as ever. She is gaining in flesh and is looking the very picture of health.

Mrs. Yaus, Maple avenue, wife of the genial cigar manufacturer, J. F. Yaus, is slightly improved in health, but is far from being "stout and hearty" yet. However, there is hope for her early recovery.

Katherine, the little daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Charles L. Flory, who has been quite sick, is very much improved.

She was brought to Newark in the Bazler & Bradley ambulance and taken to the City Hospital, where she was treated by Dr. U. K. Essington of Newark, who was called into the case by Dr. Ely of Utica.

Today Miss Parks was removed in the ambulance to the home of a sister, Mrs. Ferguson in Evans street, where she shows every indication of making a complete recovery. Dr. Essington stated that he had never before seen a case like Mrs. Parks have any but a fatal termination.

RESUMES INQUEST INTO THE DEATH OF WALDO R. BALLOU

(Associated Press Telegram) Stamford, Conn., June 29.—Chief interest today in the investigation of the mysterious death last week of Waldo R. Ballou, centered in the report of Dr. Bruce S. Weaver, a pathologist, was expected to make to Coroner Phelan on the result of the chemical analysis of certain marks found on the walls of the apartments of Mrs. Helen M. Angle, whom Ballou visited on the night of his death. It has been alleged that the marks were bloodstains. The coroner resumes his inquiry this afternoon and it was expected that Mrs. Angle would take the stand. She is under bonds pending the outcome of the inquiry.

Leonard Blondell, father of Mrs. Angle, today said he had had a private analysis made of the wall marks and was satisfied that they showed the stains to be in some instances those of tobacco juice and in others of oil.

It is understood, however, that the police have an intimation that the report of Dr. Weaver will be of a nature to controvert Mr. Blondell's statement.

Cupid's work would often make him laugh in his sleeve, if he had one.

There Are Many Causes For An Infected Breath," Says Madame Ise'bell

"Some Come From The Stomach And Some From The Head"

THE BREATH—Part I. Carelessness, I believe, is the basis of most cases of offensive breath. This means disregard of perfect cleanliness of the mouth and nose and of the fundamental laws of physical hygiene. By carelessness I also include the neglect of overcoming some passing cause that may taint the breath.

Other causes of offensive breath come from physical causes that are sometimes deeply rooted and difficult to cure. When recognized they may be overcome, and in any case, care will mitigate their unpleasant effects.

Clean the Teeth Properly. Anyone desirous of keeping the breath sweet will pay strict attention to the condition of the mouth and nasal passages. Brushing the teeth is not sufficient. The mouth, the gums, the tongue should be wiped daily with a piece of absorbent cotton. The throat should be gargled. Learn to clean the teeth properly with an up and down movement of the brush that will get between the teeth and dislodge particles of food. Never go to sleep without being sure that the teeth are absolutely free of any food particles.

For this purpose a tooth brush is rarely sufficient and dental floss is necessary. Pay particular attention to any artificial attachments in the mouth. With some dental work it is possible to pass the dental floss between the bridge and the gums and keep the spaces clean in that way. If this is not possible, provide yourself with one of the small mouth sprays that dentists use.

Remember that particles of food left in the mouth will ferment and cause not only an offensive breath, but rapid decay of the teeth.

A pleasant wash for the mouth to be used after the teeth have been brushed, and dental floss used and the mucus wiped from tongue, gums and roof of mouth is a few drops of tincture of myrrh in a half glass of cold water. If there is any reason to suppose that the breath is tainted, make this preparation. Gargle the throat and cleanse out the mouth with it as well.

Catarrh. Catarrh is a frequent cause for offensive breath. Many cases of this troublesome malady are cured by the systematic practice of deep breathing and absolute cleanliness of the nasal passages. I believe that children should be taught to wash their nostrils morning and night with soapy water, inhaling a little of it into the nostrils and expelling it. Perfect cleanliness of the nasal passages is the best protection against head colds and catarrh and the best guarantee that the breath is not tainted with any odor coming from the head.

In the following lesson I will take up the subject of offensive breath due to disturbances of the digestive tract.

LITTLE DISCUSSIONS OF LOVE AND MARRIAGE

BY BARBARA BOYD

Diplomacy and the Family Purse.

"Men are such inconsistent creatures," the Old Maid was saying.

"I thought it is women who are inconsistent," smiled the Engaged Girl.

"That's what men have been putting over us for a good many generations," smiled the Old Maid, "simply to draw attention from their own delinquencies in the matter. And we have let them fool us. But thank heaven, our eyes are getting opened."

"Just what have men been doing now," laughed the Engaged Girl, "that is so very inconsistent?"

"Several months ago I attended the wedding of a friend of mine and I heard the bridegroom very grandiloquently say, 'With all my worldly goods, I thee endow.' This week, I happened to be staying with them for a few days, and the feats of diplomacy my friend had to execute to extract a few dollars from him would have won her undying fame in the fields of statecraft."

"She should have settled such matters before they were married," protested the Engaged Girl.

"What good would it have done?" scoffed the Old Maid. "If he will go back on a marriage vow he wouldn't stand by anything else he promised."

"I think men look on that part of the service merely as a matter of form," excused the Engaged Girl. "But if the two had had a real sensible talk about such things before they were married and had come to a definite understanding, I think he would have stood by it."

The Old Maid still looked scornful.

"That's what Charles and I have done," went on the Engaged Girl. "We decided we must keep our living expenses within a certain amount. I'll make them lower if I can without sacrificing what is necessary to health and comfort. Then we shall put by a certain amount for saving. What is left we will divide between us for our personal expenses—dressing, incidentals, amusements and so forth. I will have my own money to do as I please with and he will have his."

"A beautiful theory," smiled the Old Maid. "But it won't work. One or the other of you won't be able to get along on your portion and there'll be trouble. In a marriage, one or the other is sure to be extravagant or a poor manager, or something of this kind."

"Oh, you pessimist," laughed the Engaged Girl. "If it doesn't work out as we want it to right at the start, we'll keep at it till it does work out. We are both sensible, we're reasonable, and we want our life together to be happy. So why shouldn't we bend our best endeavors to make it so? The money question in the home is one of the big problems. And it should be settled practically and justly. Looking at it simply in a business way, some such arrangement as this is best, because a wife knows not only just what she has for the house—lots of wives have a definite household allowance—but what is more important, she knows exactly what she has for herself. There is no guesswork, no spending more than can be afforded, no running up of bills haphazardly or ignorantly. The husband, who thinks he is economical by not giving his wife a regular amount of money is simply compelling her to buy in an unsystematic fashion."

"I shall watch your experiment with interest," said the Old Maid. "But I prophesy that in a year, you will be as deftly trying to extract coin from your husband as is my other friend."

Fats Make the Hottest Fire

And as the digestion of food generates body heat, so the more greasy, heavy food you eat, the hotter you are.

One can feel several degrees cooler and more comfortable in summer by selecting proper food.

GRAPE-NUTS

is made of carefully selected wheat and barley and contains all their nutritive values, including the mineral phosphates, (grown in the grain), that are especially necessary for rebuilding the tissue cells of body and brain.

Grape-Nuts is thoroughly baked (16 to 24 hours) which breaks down the starch cells. Therefore it is easily and quickly digested—generally in about one hour.

If you care to feel cool and fit make Grape-Nuts a part of the summer diet—a delicious part!

COBB CONFERS WITH GILMORE OF THE FEDERALS

(Associated Press Telegram)
Buffalo, N. Y., June 29.—President James A. Gilmore of the Federal baseball league, and Ty Cobb, of the Detroit Americans, arrived here today and took quarters at different hotels. Federal league officials denied that there was any significance in their presence here simultaneously.

President Gilmore who was accompanied by an attorney, stated that he came here to take up the matter of the Hal Chase injunction. Cobb came, he said, to umpire a ball game at a railroad men's outing.

Cobb called on President Gilmore at his hotel shortly after 2 o'clock. They went at once to Mr. Gilmore's room in private conference.

Chicago Grain Situation.
(Associated Press Telegram)
Chicago, June 29.—Higher cables tended to keep traders away from the wheat side of the market today and caused a sudden tightening of prices. It was reported also that crop conditions in the northwest were not as good as had been expected. The uptick, however, was not well maintained. Opening prices which were unchanged 1/4 higher, were followed by a slight reaction by a sharp advance and later by a material snap from top figures.

Rain breaking the drought southwest had a weakening effect on the corn market. The setback, though, was almost entirely overcome later by the influence of wheat strength. After standing unchanged to lower, prices declined moderately, and afterward rallied briskly. Oats swayed with other grain, sellers were at a majority, but thinned out when wheat began to bulge. Higher prices for hogs steadied the provision market. Changes in quotations were slight.

Switzerland's Navy.

Long before Germany was to be reckoned with as a sea power Switzerland possessed a fleet equipped for warfare. Eight hundred years ago on all the larger Swiss lakes armed galleys were maintained by the rival cantons. Skilled shipwrights had to be imported from Genoa for the construction of these vessels, some of which carried crews of 500 men. The largest Swiss flotilla was maintained on the Lake of Geneva, when the inhabitants of Geneva were at war with Savoy. Since the neutrality of Switzerland has been guaranteed by the powers there has been no need for warships on the lakes. The Swiss, however, possess a mercantile navy, which carries a considerable amount of trade over the 342 miles of navigable waterways in the republic.

CREATION DRAMA EXHIBITED

In Discourse Pastor Russell, Association's President, Discussed Eloquently, "Repentance First, Then Consecration," and Pointed Out From Scripture That the Gospel is For the Conscience of Heart Only—"Suffering With Christ"—Ultimate Purpose of Trials and Afflictions—Glory to Follow.

(PASTOR RUSSELL)

Asbury Park, N. J., June 28.—Pastor Russell is here in attendance at a big General Convention of the International Bible Students' Association, which began its sessions Friday and will continue twelve days. Three General Conventions of this Association are now in progress, the other two being at Columbus, Ohio, and Clinton, Iowa. Upwards of 2,000 delegates are in attendance at each Convention. Pastor Russell expects to be present three days at each of the assemblies.

Two sessions are held daily in each of the cities, and the Pastor's famous Creation Drama is exhibited each evening. There being four parts to the Drama, three full presentations will be given.

Pastor Russell's theme today was one of great interest. The discourse set forth the philosophy of the untold sufferings of Christians throughout this Gospel Dispensation. Part IV. of The Photo-Drama of Creation, now on exhibition both at home and abroad, depicts the unwritten history of the Church of Christ, and enables those who see it to realize to some extent what it has cost true Christians to "follow His steps." The Pastor's text was, "Jehovah hath appointed Me to preach good tidings to the meek, to bind up the broken-hearted."—Isaiah 61:1.

The Pastor opened his discourse by drawing attention to the statement that the Gospel Message is for the meek, the broken-hearted. During the Millennium Reign of Christ God will take away the stoniness of heart from mankind and will give, instead, hearts of flesh. Under the blessed conditions of the Kingdom, hard, selfish hearts will gradually become soft, tender, kind, gentle. But now, in advance of Messiah's Kingdom, God is seeking those who are seeking Him. Those who are not especially seeking Him are not likely to find Him.

Preaching the Gospel to the meek is the work of this Age. This is the only class which God wishes to have now. He is seeking the class that desire to be of the Bride of Christ, Jesus' joint-heirs in the Messianic Kingdom. Therefore the Message is not such as would suit the hard-hearted. Only the tender-hearted cure to know about the love of God, the mercy of God, the forgiveness of sins, the privilege of returning to the Father's House and of having Jesus as their Savior.

The Pastor believes that in the past we have had a wrong idea as to whom the Gospel Message is to go. We went out into the highways and byways to find those who were very wicked—blasphemers, etc., thinking that these were the ones with whom we were to deal. The Scriptures do not authorize any such idea. A person living in unrepented sin is not in the proper condition to receive God's great Plan of the Ages, the speaker claimed. God has declared that "none of the wicked shall understand." He does not wish them to do so. The very reverse is true. His purpose is to bind up the broken-hearted.

God's Message speaks peace to those who are in trouble and who are looking to Him, seeking the righteousness which He provides. Some apparently have made a great mistake in thinking that the Gospel is a sledge hammer with which they are to break men's hearts. The speaker does not know of any Scriptural commission for any of the people of God to break the hearts of men. On the contrary, he thinks that the Devil does most of such work.

The Two Conversions.
There are two conversions, declared the Pastor. The first is a turning from sin; the second, a turning to God. Those desirous of approaching God are seeking to leave sin. Those who are living in sin wish to be away from God. We cannot go in two directions at once. The course which God would have any pursue is this: When one finds that he is a sinner, he should repent and turn away from sin; then, when he learns that God has made an arrangement by which sinners may be reconciled to Himself, he should ascertain what steps he should take in order to obtain his share in that reconciliation.

While turning from sin may in some respects be called a conversion, yet it is not the principal conversion. Only those who take the step of full consecration to the Lord may receive the Holy Spirit and obtain a clear view of the Divine Plan. As the Apostle says, "The natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God; for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."

Then the Pastor explained that those begotten of the Holy Spirit are Scripturally called children of God, heirs of God, joint-heirs with Jesus Christ. If faithful unto death, they will be glorified in the First Resurrection. Meantime they are to grow in grace, knowledge, love and all other fruits and graces of the Spirit—grow by their trials, by their obedience, by striving against the world, the flesh and the Devil. All this must be done before this class will be ready for their resurrection change. In the present time, however, all who are begotten of the Holy Spirit not only belong to the Church in general, with all others of the people of God, this one Brotherhood of Christ on the spiritual plane, but they are also reckoned as members of the Body of Christ on the fleshly plane—the earthly plane.

From this viewpoint, Christ has been suffering in the flesh throughout the Gospel Age. St. Peter says that the Prophets of Israel testified beforehand of the sufferings of The Christ and of the glory to follow; and hence he urges the Church to arm themselves with the same mind that Jesus had. St. Paul speaks of filling up that which is behind of the afflictions of The Christ—all the members of His Body. After these sufferings are filled up, then the glory will follow. The sufferings are not yet complete.

The speaker went on to explain how trials and discipline are means of developing Christian character, preparing the child of God for future service in the Kingdom. The privilege of suffering with Christ in the flesh is something to be appreciated. Whoever has trials in the flesh because of Christ, because of being His disciple, has occasion for rejoicing. Such should continue faithful, in order that by and by as a polished jewel he may be ready for a glorious setting in the immortality of the future. An uncut, unpolished jewel is not worth much. Its real worth is brought forth in the cutting. So the Lord gives His jewels the cutting and polishing necessary to enable them to reflect the glorious light of the goodness of God.

Jewels do not all require the same amount of polishing, declared the Pastor. A small diamond can be cut and polished more easily than can a large one. Those of the people of God who undergo severe trials and afflictions may hope that they will be accounted large jewels in the hands of the Lord. The larger the diamond, the more work in cutting and polishing.

Confessing or Denying Christ.

Then the Pastor discussed the terms upon which one may make his calling and election sure to a position in the glorified Body of Christ beyond the veil. From the time when one's consecration is accepted by the Father and he is begotten of the Holy Spirit, his name is written in the Lamb's Book of Life as a member of the Body of Christ. To these our Lord declares that if they are faithful He will blot their names from His Book. These are to remain faithful to what they are agreed to do—to give their little all in sacrifice. On that condition they were accepted and had their names recorded. But if any such deny Christ, He will deny them. If they continue to confess Him, He will confess them. To confess Christ is to live for Him day by day—confessing Him in the way in which one uses time, influence, money, talents; confessing Him in business, in everything that is either said or done. But if any consecrated child of God should deny Christ by seeking to live after the world, by neglecting the Covenant of Sacrifice, such would thus demonstrate his unworthiness of a place in the Bride class—the Church in glory.

Should any one ask the Pastor why he lays so much stress upon consecration, he would reply that, according to Scripture, God is not now dealing with the world in general; that in order to bring our petitions to the Throne of Heavenly Grace we must get into relationship with God; and that there is only one way by which this can be done—consecration. To emphasize his point the speaker used the illustration of a wedding in the time of our Lord. On such occasions it was customary for the host to furnish all the guests with a plain white linen garment, which was to be worn over their own garments. Whether the guests wore rich or poor raiment, the wedding garment covered everything, and made them all brethren for the time being; for they were guests of the same host.

Applying his illustration, Pastor Russell explained that all consecrated Christians have accepted God's invitation to the marriage of the Lamb—the Son of God. But no matter how well we may arrange our own garments, each must put on the wedding garment or else remain away from the feast. The moment of consecration is the moment of receiving the Robe of Christ's Righteousness, and only those who continue to wear that robe will have entrance to the wedding. By nature mankind are sinners. There is only one way to get rid of sins—by belief in the Lord Jesus Christ, and full consecration to do the will of God. Whoever really believes that Jesus died for his sins will set upon his belief by presenting his body a living sacrifice.

"Garments Unspotted From the World."
Continuing the figure of the Wedding Garment, the Pastor declared that the robe put on by the Christians who desired to have entrance to the Marriage of the Lamb was white and clean, representing his full justification at the moment of consecration—all blemishes of the flesh being covered with the merit of Christ. The Scriptures tell us that those who ultimately enter in to the Marriage will be those who have kept their garments unspotted from the world. Since all unrighteousness is sin, every sin is a spot upon the robe, whether it be committed wilfully or ignorantly. All faithful children of God should use all diligence in keeping their garments free from blemish. This may be done by daily thinking about the robe, and nightly asking the Lord to remove each spot—to forgive each failure made that day. The blood of Jesus Christ keeps cleansing all who ask that they be cleansed.

This is the Heavenly Father's arrangement for His children. He desires them to walk circumspectly, watching where they tread. Thus they learn every detail in respect to their own imperfections. No one can live for even one day without trespassing upon the perfect Law of God; for by nature we are all imperfect. In heart the child of God does not sin; the New Creature does not sin. It is merely that the flesh is weak. But we have the comforting assurance of the Scripture that "if any man sin, we have an Advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the Righteous." Our Lord is there to make good with the Father for all the Adamic weaknesses.

The Pastor then discussed two kinds of sin, one of which he declared to be forgivable and the other unforgivable. If to any extent the mind consents to the deed, to that extent the sin is wilful. Then only that portion which was not wilful will be forgiven. Whatever part was not forgivable is punishable. The individual will receive stripes, punishments, of one sort or another, proportionate to the degree in which the will consented to the sin.

There is naturally such sympathy between the flesh and the mind that sometimes even the will of the New Creature permits the flesh to take it by force, as it were. This should not be; the will is responsible, and because of its carelessness will receive stripes of some kind. But so long as the individual feels sorry as soon as the yielding to temptation has passed, he may know that his will does not love sin. Should his will ever change and prefer sin, he would not be sorry after the sin was committed.

How to Be an Overcomer.

It was then shown that every consecrated child of God must be an overcomer in fighting the good fight of faith, and in obedience to God must put down everything that pertains to sin and unrighteousness in himself, and stand for that which is pleasing in the sight of God. This is the test of our loyalty to Him and to the principles of His righteous Government. Many sins are really weaknesses of the flesh which overcome the will momentarily. Just here the New Creature must conquer in the fight. He must get the victory over the flesh. If we sin, if we trespass, we must go to the Fountain of Grace and be forgiven.

The great difficulty, the Pastor declared, seems to be that after we have had some experiences of this kind, we have not done better. This is the time when the Christian is in danger. He is liable to fail to ask forgiveness at the Throne of the Heavenly Grace; for he feels that already he has been forgiven perhaps many times for the same trespass. Therefore he may try to forget the spot, to forget the "robe," almost to forget the Lord. Gradually a veil comes between him and God; the Father is not so near and so dear as once He was. While He is still his Heavenly Father, while still the erring one trusts in Him, nevertheless there is a lack of the fellowship of the Spirit. Earth-born clouds have hidden the Father's face.

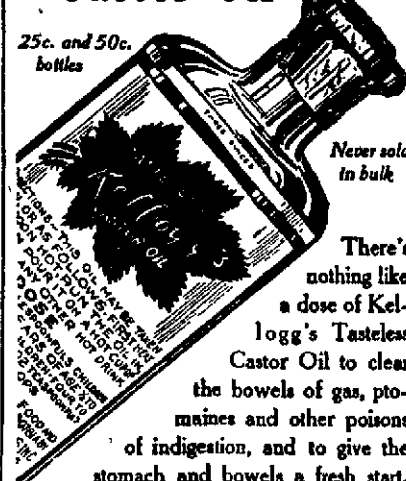

This is the experience of hundreds of the people of God; for they cannot be in His presence with spots upon their robes, and they do not resolve that they will not live away from Him. They cannot have fellowship with the Lord while their robes are spotted, nor can they have proper Christian life while absent from the Lord. The lesson on this point, the speaker declared, is that we watch and keep humble. To come to the Lord and say, "O Lord, another time I have failed! How ashamed I am!" is to take the right step. Humility is one of the very foundations upon which all other graces must be built. So the Apostle Peter says, "Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that He may exalt you in due time."

The Cleansing Blood of Christ.

The number of those without spot or wrinkle or any such thing is very small, said the Pastor. Many Christians have not kept their wedding robes with sufficient care, and thus have shown their lack of appreciation of the wedding and of their invitation to attend. If the attention of such be called to the spots, they try to put them out of sight, to ignore them, to declare that everybody has spots on his robe. This is an unwise procedure; for the robe is our passport into the Kingdom. If the spots are not removed, they gradually become more and more a hindrance to those who seek to be accounted worthy of a place in the Bride class.

The Pastor then reminded his audience that when the Christian first received his robe, it was pure white, with a certain design stamped thereon, and that he was expected to embody it with the character-likeness of the Lord. If he has gotten the robe spotted and bedraggled, he should be in the Lord in prayer, and persist in his assurance of forgiveness and cleansing. We read, "If we confess our sins, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness." It is not merely a matter of love, but of justice, on our part. The Heavenly Father made the arrangement; Jesus has died, paid our penalty and hallowed of His own merit sufficient to cleanse all unintentional spots. Forgiveness is to be had for the asking.

COMB SAGE TEA INTO GRAY HAIR

Ladies! Try this! Darkens beautifully and nobody can tell—Brings back its gloss and thickness.

Common garden sage brewed into a heavy tea, with sulphur and alcohol added will turn gray, streaked and faded hair beautifully dark and luxuriant; remove every bit of dandruff, stop scalp itching and falling hair. Mix the Sage Tea and Sulphur recipe at home, though, is troublesome. An easier way is to get the ready-to-use tonic, costing about 50 cents a large bottle, at drug stores, known as "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy," thus avoiding a lot of muss.

While wispy, gray faded hair is not sinful, we all desire to retain our youthful appearance and attractiveness. By darkening your hair with Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it does it so naturally, so evenly. You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning all gray hairs have disappeared. After another application or two your hair becomes beautifully dark, glossy, soft and luxuriant and you appear years younger. Agents, Hall's drug store.

REMEDIES FOR GARDEN PESTS.

Simple and effective remedies for two of the most common and destructive garden pests were recently outlined by Prof. L. M. Montgomery of the College of Agriculture, Ohio State University. Cucumber beetles and cabbage worms are among the worst pests the gardener has to fight. The cucumber beetle is a small yellow beetle with black stripes running down its back. It causes heavy damage not only to cucumbers but to melons and other vining plants. One part of Paris green to 50 to 100 parts of air slaked lime is a very effective remedy. This should be sifted over the plants in the morning when they are covered with dew. For the cabbage worm, one ounce of white hellebore dissolved in two or three gallons of water is used. This should be sprinkled or sprayed heavily on the cabbage. If some soap is added it will add to the sticking properties of the solution. The hellebore may also be applied in powder form. It is a poison of vegetable origin, and its poisonous properties are lost on exposure to the air for two or three days. This makes it necessary to repeat the application on the plant every few days.

New Superintendent of Transportation of B. & O. Road

The appointment of J. R. Kearney to the office of general superintendent of transportation of the Baltimore & Ohio system, embracing the Baltimore & Ohio, Baltimore & Ohio Southwestern, Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, Staten Island, and the Sandy Valley & Elkhorn lines, is announced in a circular issued by Vice President A. W. Thompson, the chief operating officer of the company. The appointment is effective on July 1.

Mr. Kearney is promoted from superintendent of transportation to general superintendent of transportation, succeeding the late C. C. Riley whose death occurred last winter. The new appointee has been superintendent of transportation since Sept. 20, 1910. His railroad service has been varied and extensive in the various branches of railroad operation.

New York's first elevated railroad was built in Greenwich street in 1875, and was operated by a cable which ran under ground and over the structure on spider wheels. According to two English scientists the sense of smell in man is small, when compared with animals, because of the practice of kissing, and gradually is being destroyed for that reason.

Wisdom from Washington

By ARTHUR W. DUNN.

Washington, June 29.—[Special.]—The long struggle that has been going on for years to make it impossible for rich men to buy their way into congress has not yet ended.

Congress did pass a law limiting the contributions of any candidate for the senate to $10,000 and for the house $5,000, but provided no punishment for a greater expenditure. The house since voted practically to exonerate a man who spent four or five times the amount in his primary campaign, which is a vindication of the claim of many members that the primary is a purely state function and that the national government has nothing whatever to do with it.

Senator Owen of Oklahoma, who has given a great deal of attention to such matters, has introduced a series of bills intended to strictly limit expenditures and to prevent men from indirectly spending money to secure elections to the senate and house. There are many methods used by men of wealth to secure support, and it is the aim of the Owen bills to force a strict adherence to the spirit of the legislation.

To Correct an Abuse.

One of the bills which Owen has introduced provides that a candidate shall not contribute, nor shall he be asked to contribute to any charitable, fraternal or religious cause or organization. Nor is he to subscribe or ask to subscribe to the support of a club, nor to buy tickets to an entertainment or ball; nor to subscribe to space in a book, program, periodical or other publication.

This will correct one of the greatest abuses that take place in every campaign. Every organization which desires to raise a fund for any purpose whatever will send from ten to fifty tickets to the candidate of the senate or house, and he is expected to send a check in return or to incur the ill will of such organization.

A senator told me that this form of contribution cost him in the neighborhood of $8,000 in one campaign. He bought tickets for church fairs, Sunday school picnics, brass band concerts, suppers, balls, games and, in fact, everything that the fertile ingenuity of people who wanted to get money could devise. Congressmen are getting tired of being held up in that way.

Hayden's Vain Plea.

Congressman Hayden of Arizona expressed a great desire to get a public building bill passed, and Minority Leader Mann, as usual, was standing in the way. Finally Hayden was given permission to read an article from a paper published in the town where the building was to be located. Indirectly it accused Hayden of favoring his home town as against the town that wanted the building, but it urged him to do his best notwithstanding. "Carl Hayden," said the paper, "could get somebody to object to the bill when he calls it up, but we do not think Carl will do a trick like that."

"I want to ask," said Hayden after reading the paper, "that the gentleman

NOSE AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD OR CATARRH, OPEN AT ONCE

My Cleansing, Healing Balm Instantly Clears Nose, Head and Throat—Stops Nasty Catarrhal Discharges. Dull Headache Goes.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately.

Don't lay awake tonight struggling for breath, with head stuffed; nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear. F. D. Hall, 10 North Side Square, Newark, O.

of Columbia passed. Probably after the appropriation bills are out of the way there will be an opportunity for these measures as well as a number of others.

Patriotism or Cowardice.

Having more time on its hands than it really knows what to do with, the house had a discussion the other day as to whether men were guided in their votes by patriotism or cowardice. As a matter of fact, most men vote the way they think their constituents want them to. If in so doing they vote against their convictions they might be classed as cowards, but if they vote their convictions and against their constituents they belong to the patriot class. And soon they find that the patriot class means out of office class.

Arizona Cotton.

During the debate on the Indian appropriation bill Senator Mark Smith brought out the fact that the much desired long staple cotton is raised on the Pima Indian reservation between the Mesa and the Gila rivers in Arizona. In reply to a question by Senator Smoot Smith said that the best cotton in the world was raised by these Indians.

TRAINER'S CORNER

A Column of Comment, on Physical Culture, Exercise, and Body Building.

(By Mac Levy of Babylon.)

In the recent Empress of Ireland disaster a little girl who had been taught to swim was able to support herself on the water until help arrived, while scores of strong men, who had neglected to master the art of swimming, went down to death. There is a lesson in this incident which should result in a world-wide revival of interest in swimming.

The difficulties in the way of learning to swim are mainly psychological. To master the art, at least to the point where one may remain in the water a considerable length of time without danger of drowning, is about the easiest thing in the world for the person of ordinary physical strength. It is fear of the water that makes it difficult.

Evolutionists hold that our ancestors were once fish. Whether or not this is true, there are millions of people who take to the water as naturally, and are as much at home in it, as if it were their natural element.

Among the Hawaiians and the South Sea Islanders the children learn to swim almost as soon as they are able to walk. They need no instruction, but go into the water, paddle around a few minutes, and then they are off. In these countries, where so many people spend a large portion of their time in the water, death by drowning is practically unknown.

American and European youngsters are apparently somewhat further removed from their fish-like ancestors, but with a little instruction most of them can be taught to swim in a few lessons.

You remember the advice given by the mother to her daughter, who had asked for permission to go out to swim:—"Yes, my dear; hang your clothes on a hickory limb, but don't go near the water."

There are two extremes to be avoided by those who set about the task of learning to swim. One was expressed by this excess of caution on the part of the fond mother, and the other extreme is, of course, a too great daring on the part of the novice.

Man boasts of his reason and intellect, but usually his mentality isn't much in evidence when he makes his first unaided attempt to swim. He may have been taught all the movements and strokes, and, theoretically, be an expert swimmer, but in the moment of need all his knowledge deserts him and he flounders helplessly.

It is this fear of the water that makes it desirable that those who are trying to learn to swim should enlist the assistance of an expert instructor, who will inspire them with confidence.

Those whose muscles and lungs are undeveloped should spend a few weeks in gymnastic exercises and deep breathing drills before taking to the water. Thus fortified, they will be far better prepared to master swimming with neatness and dispatch.

Considered as a sport, swimming is excellent, and as a healthful form of exercise it has no superiors. It comes about as near as any form of physical activity to bringing all the muscles of the body into play.

One branch of swimming that is often neglected, even by those proficient in the art, is swimming on the back. It is not only highly desirable as helping to bring unused muscles into activity, but its utility is often greater than the more usual swimming methods.

Those who have an ambition to shine as long distance swimmers, or who go into the water alone, should by all means learn to swim on the back. When exhausted or attacked by cramps, the ability to turn over and rest comfortably on the back may often be the means of saving life.

As a matter of fact, it is easier for most people to learn to swim on the back than with the face downward, if they have the assistance of an instructor or of a friend who knows how to swim. The reason for this is that in back swimming the mouth and nose are always above the surface of the water. Learning to breathe properly is the most difficult part of mastering the breast stroke, as the novice usually finds his nose and mouth under the surface very early in the attempt, and this often arouses in him a frenzy of fear.

One may begin to learn the back stroke while stretched safely on a bed or couch, or on the floor. Lie flat on the back, with the arms, parallel to each other, stretched back above the head, and the hands touching each other, fingers closed and palm upward, while the legs, close together, are also extended fully, with toes slanting downward. Having assumed this position, you are ready to start the stroke. First turn the palm of the hand outward, so that the backs of the hands touch each other. Bring them downward, even with the body, in a wide curve to the legs. Keep the arms straight and do not crook the elbow. As the hands touch the thighs, the legs, which have been left straight, get into action. With heels together, bend the knees outward and upward, and then kick out smartly, with the feet wide apart. As the concluding leg movement, bring the legs quickly together. Simultaneously with the leg stroke the hands, backs up, are brought back in a wide sweep of the arms to the starting point. Hands and legs should reach the original position at exactly the same time.

When you go into the water the best plan is to begin by learning to float on the back. Have the teacher or companion hold you at first. Let this assistance be gradually withdrawn, and you will soon discover, much to your surprise, that water is much heavier than you thought, and quite capable of supporting you if you will give it a chance.

As lack of confidence is the principal obstacle in learning to swim, it is best to choose a place where the water is not much above the waist. Draw a deep breath as you bend backward slowly. Hold your breath as you let go your foothold and bring your legs outward on a level with your body. When you are balanced on your companion's hand, breathe naturally. Be calm and collected, and you will quickly learn to float. Then you may begin the back stroke, slowly and carefully at first.

When you have gained confidence in your ability to stay above the water, you may begin to make some progress in the direction of real swimming. In performing the movements, previously described, in the water, bring the arms around just under the surface. As the hands reach the thighs after the downward arm stroke let the body go forward before beginning the leg movement. As you drive with the legs, permit the arms to trail above the head until the momentum from the leg movement is lost.

Whatever methods you choose, learn to swim. It may save you from death by drowning, and as a healthful exercise, it is likely to add to your years, as well as providing excellent sport.

DECIDED DROP IN TEMPERATURE SUNDAY NIGHT

From what was reported as the hottest June day on record, Saturday, to almost "overcoat weather," at 56 degrees at 5 a. m. Monday, the weather record in this locality for radical changes was almost shattered.

There exists a difference of opinion as to whether last Saturday was the hottest day of the season. A reliable thermometer at the corner of Fourth and Main Sts., in the shade, registered 105 degrees last Friday before the storm. Some reports from different parts of Newark say this record was exceeded by several degrees on Saturday, while still others hold that Friday's and Saturday's heat records were not to be compared with registrations of thermometers during the heated period of two weeks ago.

A cool breeze from the northwest brought a relieving thunder shower Saturday night, which chased shoppers to cover about 9:30 o'clock and continued for about an hour.

Sunday morning a light breeze was in evidence and not a cloud appeared in the sky until late in the afternoon, when the velocity of the wind increased to such proportions that in the open country it became a gale making probably forty miles an hour, almost incessantly.

The night was chilly. Thousands who had sought the open to take advantage of the pleasant weather during the day for outings at Buckeye Lake Park, in the country, in motor cars and buggies, and even great numbers of strollers, were forced to take to their homes when the air became almost too cool for comfort.

Monday morning at 5 o'clock the government-tested thermometer at John Brown's East Main street grocery registered 56 degrees above zero, a drop of more than 35 degrees in almost as many hours.

The sky became overcast with clouds in the early forenoon, Monday, with a fair indication of more rainfall.

Farmers throughout the country, while rejoicing over the recent rains, which they say were greatly needed, have noticed considerable damage accompanying the high winds and hard rains. In many places corn, much of which is still very short and tender, has been blown almost flat to the ground and the leaves have been split by force of the rainfall.

Much wheat has been cut in parts of the county, and many farmers have planned to do their wheat cutting this week if rains do not prevent it. In places where the grain still shows bits of green, owners are still anxious to allow it to open fully before taking the chance of cutting it and being compelled to leave it during a rain, which would result in considerable loss.

It is said if the weather permits gathering of the wheat crop at its proper stage, Licking county's production this year will come close to being a record breaker.

SAYS CRIME IS ON INCREASE IN NEW YORK CITY

(Associated Press Telegram.) New York, June 29.—While the figures in the 1913 report of the court of special sessions, made public today, indicate an increase in crime in New York City of 45 per cent. over 1912, Frank W. Smith, chief clerk, sounds a different note, especially as the report has to do with children.

"It is possibly well to observe," he says, that, notwithstanding the increase in population, the total number of children accused of juvenile delinquency in special proceedings is only 14,969 for the year 1913 as compared with 15,706 for 1912." In the opinion of the justices the most dangerous age for both boys and girls is the fourteenth and fifteenth years and it is suggested this is the time when the community should give most aid in keeping them in the right path.

TO SAVE EYES

Is the Object of This Free Prescription
Try It If Your Eyes Give You Trouble.

Thousands of people suffer from eye troubles because they do not know what to do. They know some good home remedy for every other minor ailment, but none for their eye troubles. They neglect their eyes, because the trouble is not so frequent as to drive them to an eye specialist, who would, anyway, charge them a heavy fee. As a last resort they go to an optician or to the five and ten-cent store, and oftentimes get glasses that they do not need, or which, after being used two or three months, do their eyes more injury than good. Here is a simple prescription that every one should use:

5 grains Optona (1 tablet).
5 ounces Water.
Use three or four times a day to bathe the eyes. This prescription and the simple Optona system keeps the eyes clean, sharpens the vision and quickly overcomes inflammation and irritation.
Weak, watery, overworked, tired eyes and other similar troubles are greatly benefited and oftentimes cured by its use. Many reports show that wearers of glasses have discarded them after a few weeks' use. It is good for the eyes and contains no ingredient which would injure the most sensitive eyes of an infant or the aged. T. J. Evans or a druggist can fill this prescription promptly. Try it and know for once what real eye comfort is.

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION WAS A SUCCESS

The service at the Central Church of Christ, yesterday, brought a great inspiration to all of the members and friends who were present. In fact, the day marks a distinct step forward for the church. The audiences were large throughout the day, practically filling the entire building, balcony and all. The spirit of good-will and optimism was very marked. Rev.
H. Newton Miller, a former pastor of the church, preached at the morning service. The key-note of his sermon was that, in view of their splendid past, the church ought to go forward with an inspiring message, and was well delivered. A "Round-up Program" was given in the evening. The general theme was "What Next?"

There were three short addresses on the following themes: "Strengthening the Mother Church," "Three More Churches in Newark Within Six Years," and "The Newark Church in 1924." Mr. Frank L. Johnson made the first address. He made a most effective appeal for a higher type of spirituality in the church life, and for a more hearty co-operation on the part of the membership in supporting the church in every way. Mr. C. C.
Larson spoke on the second subject assigned. His address was permeated with the spirit of good humor and optimism. The third address was by Mr. Miller, and was also characterized by good cheer and a strong faith in the church.

The special offering of the day amounted to about $1,700, and it will probably be increased to about $2,000 by private solicitation. This amount will liquidate the repair bill of $1,100, pay the incidental expenses of the anniversary celebration, and leave a good sum for a first payment on the West Side lot, located on the corner of West Main and Williams streets.
Thus the Central Church of Christ is again out of debt, except for the amount owed on the new lot, which it is conceded, would sell for more than the purchase price at almost any time. The members are united and happy, and feel that their greatest work is yet before them. The anniversary celebration, just closed, was a complete success in every way.

DEATH OF A BROTHER OF DR. E. W. HUNT

Occurs at Yonkers, N. Y.—Anti-Saloon League Speaker at Granville Sunday.

(Special to the Advocate.)
Granville, June 29.—At the regular evening service of the Baptist church Sunday, the sympathy and prayers of the congregation were asked for Dr. E. W. Hunt, former president of Denison, who has recently suffered a great loss in the death of his eldest brother, James Hunt, at Yonkers, N. Y. Mr. Hunt, who was a prominent lawyer of New York City, residing for many years in Yonkers, was ill about two weeks with an abscess of the inner ear.
Two operations failed to relieve him and he succumbed after a brave fight for life, and at the height of an unusually successful career, in his 56th year. His wife and two brothers survive, and they have the sympathy of their many friends in this community. The tie between
Dr. Hunt and this elder brother, James, was peculiarly close and tender, and the sudden severing of this tie is a severe shock to him, as well as to the entire family.

Scenes at the Salem, Mass., Fire Where 10,000 Were Rendered Homeless

More than a thousand buildings, worth, it was estimated, $10,000,000, were burned in the fire of Thursday night in Salem, Mass. At least 10,000 persons were rendered homeless, and aid was sent from many cities. Warm weather and a clear sky prevented any suffering from exposure on the part of the thousands who passed the night in the open. Many hundreds were sheltered in schools, churches and other public buildings. Before the fire had been fairly checked relief measures were under way.

LOCAL CHINAMEN WILL BE TRIED AT ZANESVILLE TODAY

Three Newark Chinamen, Lee Don, Lee Lum and Chan Wu went to Zanesville today, where this afternoon they are to appear before United States Commissioner S. S.
Frazier to show cause why they should not be deported under the federal immigration law, which requires them to show a certificate of residence. If they cannot do so they are arrested and must then show their right to remain.
Attorney Edward Kibler, Sr., went to Zanesville to defend the Chinamen, and will contend that they were born here, and need no such certificate under the law.

Witnesses for the defense who claim to know all about the three young Celestials are here from Pittsburg, Toledo and Columbus, and will testify at the Zanesville trial.
Sherman McPherson of Cincinnati, United States attorney will have charge of the government's case.

IF KIDNEYS AND BLADDER BOTHER

Take a glass of Salts to flush out your Kidneys and neutralize irritating acids

Kidney and Bladder weakness result from uric acid, says a noted authority. The kidneys filter this acid from the blood and pass it on to the bladder, where it often remains to irritate and inflame, causing a burning, scalding sensation, or getting up an irritation at the neck of the bladder, obliging you to seek relief two or three times during the night. The sufferer is in constant dread, the water passes sometimes with a scalding sensation and is very profuse; again, there is difficulty in avoiding it.

Bladder weakness, most folks call it, because they can't control urination. While it is extremely annoying and sometimes very painful, this is really one of the most simple ailments to overcome. Get about four ounces of Jad Salts from your pharmacist and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast, continue this for two or three days.
This will neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation to the bladder and urinary organs which then act normally again.

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless, and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is used by thousands of folks who are subject to urinary disorders caused by uric acid irritation.
Jad Salts is splendid for kidneys and causes no bad effects whatever.
Here you have a pleasant afternoon tea and a pleasant drink, which quickly relieves bladder trouble.

tour of Bosnia, which he undertook as inspector general of the forces of the empire.

This title was conferred upon him last year by Emperor Francis Joseph. His chief task was to inspect the Austrian army which guarded the Serbian frontier during the recent Balkan wars and prevented any encroachments by Serbian troops.

The Serbian minister at Vienna told Archduke Francis Ferdinand of the perils of his visit to Sarajevo at the present time and implored him even if he insisted on going there himself at least to leave the duchess at home.

When the Duchess of Hohenberg was informed however, of the dangerous nature of the journey the archduke was about to take, she said, her place was her husband's side.

When the Archduke and the Duchess arrived at Sarajevo on Saturday some signs of hostility were shown by the Serb portion of the population. Just before the couple passed through the city the authorities succeeded in getting rid of a great display of Serbian flags which the people had hoisted instead of flying the Austrian colors.

The bitterness of telling however, was carried to the extreme at a session of Bosnian diet called to express sorrow at the death of the Archduke four Serbian deputies appeared in light suits in contrast to the sombre black of their fellow deputies.

The plans of the assassins contemplated, it is said, the blowing up of the royal train while the archduke and his wife were leaving Sarajevo unless the attempt by Gavrio Plynz failed. It was learned today that several bombs were found along the Sarajevo railroad over which the archduke and his wife would have traveled.

Plynz's own plans were carefully laid. He selected himself behind a building at a spot where it was necessary for the archduke's care to slacken speed. Some accounts of the crime say that Plynz actually stood on the step of the Ducal car as he fired the shots.

Against all these carefully laid plans of the criminals the extraordinary precautions taken by the authorities provided unavailing for the murderers guessed rightly that the archduke would not be frightened into giving up his program after the first bomb had failed.

In Prinz's rooms the police today found a large sum of money, which they say is further proof that he was a paid assassin of some Serbian organization.

The sympathy, not only of the rulers, but of the people of Europe has been expressed to the aged emperor Francis Joseph, whose much needed rest at his summer residence at Ischl has been broken by the crime. He left Ischl where he was recuperating from his recent severe illness for Vienna this morning.

The imperial train stopped at Arstetten, where the emperor was joined by Archduke Francis Salvador and by his only daughter, archduchess Maria Veleria.

BURDEN FALLS HEAVILY ON THE AGED EMPEROR

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)

Vienna, June 29.—The tragedy at Sarajevo yesterday is bound to have a momentous political effect on the dual monarchy. The situation produced by the equal tragic death of Archduke Rudolph repeats itself today.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand when he became heir presumptive was comparatively unknown as is Archduke Karl today, but with this important difference that Emperor Francis Joseph then had prospects of many years still to reign. Now in the nature of things the empire must in a comparatively short time be governed by an inexperienced prince instead of a ruler with two years close acquaintance with state affairs and second only in influence to the emperor himself.

Archduke Francis Ferdinand on becoming heir to the throne, formally renounced all title to the throne on behalf of his children. This necessary because Austrian laws debar the offspring of morganatic marriages becoming rulers of the country. No such disqualification exists under the Hungarian laws and in the event of a division of the monarchy without such voluntary renunciation of Francis Ferdinand might succeed to the Hungarian throne.

The death of Francis Ferdinand will throw all business of government upon the aged emperor and at the moment it is next to impossible to predict what political results will follow yesterday's tragic events. The late archduke had a tremendously strong personality and wielded an enormous influence in every department of political, military and civil affairs. He possessed a temperament of fiery energy and had strong clerical sympathies. He was bitterly opposed to Hungary and all separatist movements. He was in favor of the restoration of temporal power of the Pope which made him unpopular with Italy, endangered Italian alliance and is believed to have looked to an alliance with Southern Slav races to counteract Hungarian influence.

Whether this was true or not he certainly was anxious to increase Austrian influence in the Balkans and worked energetically with that aim in view which is held as explanation of Serbian antagonism toward him.

Little is known of Archduke Karl Francis Joseph's political leanings, but it is supposed that with the disappearance of such a strong personality Austria may soon enter upon a period of greater quietude than she would have experienced under Archduke Francis Ferdinand.

From all parts of the dual monarchy as well as from most foreign countries, messages poured in today testifying to the profoundly painful impression produced throughout the world by the assassination of Archduke Francis Ferdinand, heir to the Austro-Hungarian throne, and his consort, the Duchess of Hohenberg.

The newspapers pay the warmest tributes to the archduke and his wife and reflect the sorrow and sympathy evoked among all classes by their death.

When the old emperor arrived at a suburban station from Ischl this morning, he was greeted with cheers by large crowds. His Majesty drove in an open carriage to Schoenbrunn Castle accompanied by a full staff of brilliantly uniformed officers. He appeared to be in the best of health. He was received at the palace by the Archduke Charles Francis Joseph, new heir apparent to the throne.

Although today was a holiday, the newspapers appeared and devoted their columns exclusively to yesterday's tragic event. All of them dwelt on the devotion to duty of the late Archduke and to the important service he rendered to the army and navy, while touching reference was made to the family relations of the Archduke and his consort which have been marked by undisturbed happiness.

General expression was given by the press to the conviction that the peoples of the dual monarchy would rally round the person of the venerable emperor.

The opinion has gained ground in authoritative circles here that the future of Austria Hungary, now more than ever depends upon the health of the venerable emperor Francis Joseph.

It was pointed out in high political circles that if the emperor is permitted to reign only a few years more everything may continue as usual and Archduke Francis Ferdinand's death will have little lasting effect upon the foreign or domestic affairs of the dual monarchy. It was suggested that should the youthful and inexperienced ruler like the archduke Charles Francis Joseph, son of the late Archduke Otto, suddenly be called on to take the reins of government a period of anxiety might intervene. The young archduke and his wife, who was princess Zita of Panama, are both extremely popular among all classes of society and everybody from the Emperor down is said to be prepared to do what most to help them in every way to rise to the responsible position so suddenly thrust upon them.

The suggestion put forward in some quarters that Archduke Francis Ferdinand's death is likely to cause a political upheaval is said to have little real foundation as the old emperor has kept the reins of the government in his own hands, delegating as little power as possible to his late nephew.

Much mystery always has existed in Austria Hungary regarding the late heir's real political claims. He was credited with being an ardent Catholic and the chief supporter of the powerful Christian Socialist or anti-Semitic party in Austria. It was known that he was not in sympathy with the Magyar regime in Hungary nor was he as pro-German in Austria as some of the German nationalist factions desired him to be.

The late Archduke, it is believed really favored some form of threefold system for the future government of the Austro-Hungarian empire to take the place of the present dual regime of Germans in Austria and Magyars in Hungary. It is said he desired to see the great Slavic population in the two halves of the empire and forming a very powerful proportion of the inhabitants given some definite share in the government of the country.

Indeed, it is declared, that he made clear promises in that direction to certain leaders of the Slav parties a few months ago.

His death removes all these possibilities and will, it is understood, prove a serious blow to the dominant power and to the anti-Semites.

So far as the new heir-presumptive is concerned, his political opinions may almost be said to be nonexistent. In foreign policy it is said to be quite certain that the Archduke Charles Francis Joseph will prove a strong supporter of Germany and of the triple alliance. The influence of his uncles, the kings of Bavaria and Saxony, and the future king of Wuerttemberg, will, it is argued, certainly keep him attached to the German empire.

It is generally thought that if the young archduke be given a fair chance he is likely to prove a second emperor Francis Joseph and that under his future rule, affairs in Austria and Hungary, both foreign and domestic will pursue the same courses as during the present reign.

The bodies of the murdered couple are expected to reach here tomorrow and will be buried next week at Aanstetten, upper Austria, in accordance with the late archduke's wishes. Already the city is draped in mourning. It has been decided that the bodies are to lie in state in the court chapel here as the duchess was not regarded as a member of the imperial family. The lying in state therefore will take place either at St. Stephens cathedral or the Belvedere chapel.

The bomb thrown by Nedeljko Gabrinovics at Sarajevo yesterday is reported to have been made at the Serbian government factory at Craguevats.

PRES. WILSON SENDS MESSAGE

(ASSOCIATED PRESS TELEGRAM)
Washington, June 29.—President Wilson today sent the following message of condolence to the Emperor of Austria-Hungary.

"Deeply shocked at the atrocious murder of His Imperial and Royal Highness Archduke Francis Ferdinand, I extend to your Majesty, to the royal family, and to the government of Austria Hungary, the sincere condolence of government and people of the United States and an expression of my own profound sympathy."

It's all right to make hay while the sun shines, but the fellow who sows his wild oats generally does it at night.

$20,000 DAMAGE ASKED FOR LOSS OF BOY'S FOOT

In a petition filed in common pleas court Monday Mrs. Ximenia M. Smith, guardian of James Ellsworth Smith, aged eight years, asks $20,000 damages for injuries sustained by the child when he was struck by an automobile, July 1, 1912. As a result of his injury, it is alleged, it was necessary to amputate the boy's right leg.

The petition filed by Attorney E. S. Randolph, charges that Julia Recknagel and Garrett Worthcutter were riding in the automobile along Fulton avenue. Mrs. Recknagel, it is alleged, was driving the car, and the plaintiff charges her with being incompetent to run the auto. In some manner the machine veered and ran into the yard of the Smith home, striking the child, cutting his head, bruising him about the body and crushing the bones in his right leg.

Mrs. Smith alleges that the automobile was running at the rate of fifteen miles an hour when the accident occurred. Her demand for damages includes services of physicians and surgeons.

Common Pleas Court.

A bill of exceptions has been filed with the Clerk of Court in the case of the J. P. Cherry Co., vs. Bertha Yarger, et al., for the purpose of taking the case to the Supreme Court. The suit involves the right of the defendants to maintain a structure over the alley at the rear of their premises located on Fourth street this city.

Bills of exceptions are being prepared in the cases of the City of Newark vs. Crane and Burnett, et al., for the purpose of taking the cases to the Supreme Court. The Court of Appeals lately decided against the city in the suits brought to quiet the title to the old graveyard property at the corner of Sixth and Main streets this city; and the City will now seek to have the Supreme Court reverse the holding of the Court of Appeals. The bill of exceptions in this latter case will be very voluminous, occupying a great number of pages.
